A challenge

One bright and sunny morning on a Friday I had a spelling test, I was and wasn't excited because we had a test, and it was the last day of school for that weekend.

I was really worried because I hadn't studied for this test, and I really had a hard time spelling. So we took the test. I got an 80%. I was sad because I didn't study. So I decided to study for the ~~next~~ next test.

When Monday came, and we got are spelling words, I took my spelling words home. So Monday all the way to Wednesday I studied my spelling words.

When ~~I~~ it came to Friday I got ready to take the test. After we took the our teacher had to grad them. So I wated tell Monday to get my spelling paper. When Monday came I got to look at my spelling paper, and I got a 100%. I was so happy. Now I'm glad that I studied for that test. Now I will study for my ~~+~~ spelling tests.

The Best Swim Meet Ever!

Ahhh! I screamed in my head! I felt like my heart was going to ~~jolt~~ jolt out of my chest! Tomorrow was my first and biggest swim meet. I was so nervous it felt like my hands were on fire!

The next day I had to get up at 6:30 in the morning! I slipped on my bathing suit, sweatpants, and sweatshirt and hopped in the car. My dad and I got at the YMCA at 7:00 in the morning. I was swimming at the girls 8 and under 100 yard freestyle. I was in event 27 heat 2. My heart was thumping so loud I thought the whole gym could here it!

Soon it was 9:30 and time for my swim. Before I went up I cheered for my teammate . . . is thirteen years old. The older girls always go before younger ones. Then I was up! I stepped up to the block. Then the announcer said "Swimmers take your mark!" Before I knew he said "Go!" I dove into the pool with a big ~~SL~~ SPLASH! Then I looked over my shoulder. I was in the lead! Flip! I just flipped off the wall and started kicking as ~~hard~~ fast as a speeding rocket. Flip! Kick! At the other end I could see my mom, dad, and all of my teammates cheering for me. Flip! Push! Oh no! Another eight year old girls was gaining on me! I started to pull harder and harder then I stopped. I had won the race!! I jumped up and yelled "yahod!"

Back at my house I sat down and watched the movie The Return of the Pink Panthers. I still could not believe I had won that race!

The next day at swim practice my coach handed out medals and ribbons. I got a medal and a ribbon for winning. I think that was the biggest ~~challenge~~ challenge I ever had!

The End!

When some people try to do new things it makes them think that this is very challenging for them. One day as I was going to my first day of school, I was terrified because I didn't know anything or anybody. So then we started to do some math. But then we did writing to. But after that it was recess so we went to go play. It was hard to get someone to play with me. When recess was over we had to go inside to do more learning. But when I was going inside I bumped into a girl named _____. We became friends. She was very nice but we had to sit down and start ~~work~~ working. Then we did reading until lunch time.

After we ate we went outside and started to play. We were playing for about 15 minutes. Recess was over well sense recess was over we had to do ~~some~~ some more work. Soon we had to do language. Then spelling we learned new and hard words. Anyways we ~~had to~~ did some science and read out of our science book.
